Mr. Dulles reported that [REDACTED] would arrive tomorrow and that G-2 had set up his schedule. The Director called Bolling and arranged for a lunch with [REDACTED] on the 17th, in addition to his scheduled meeting with the DD/P at 3:30 on the 18th. Mr. Dulles noted that [REDACTED] had recently seen [REDACTED] in Yugoslavia at Gen. Eisenhower's suggestion and that [REDACTED] had also had conversations with the war ministers in Greece and Turkey.

Mr. Dulles reported that he was working on a [REDACTED] for escape and evasion.

Mr. Dulles presented a letter on NSC 26, and the Director suggested it be modified to indicate that the companies had agreed to a program of limited denial.

Mr. Dulles raised the question of a Senior Representative in [REDACTED]. The Director said that [REDACTED] should be considered if we are planning to promote somebody in the organization, but that he wouldn't consider any outsider under the rank of Major General.

25X1

The Director said that Mr. Reber's status as Assistant Director for Intelligence Coordination should be formalized.
